The Daily Courant.

Monday, November 25. 1717.

Warſaw, November 12.

'HIS Poliſh Majeſty is ſuddenly 'expected here, but 'tis be- 'liev'd that while he tarries 'in Poland, he will reſide for a great 'Part of his Time at Reuſſen or Poſen. 'The Ruſſian Generals Weisbach and 'Weyde, have paſs'd near this Place, 'and haſten the March of their Troops, 'partly towards Grodno, and partly to- 'wards Lublin, but the Troops of that 'Nation that are encamped at Wilda, de- 'mand of that Palatinate 3000 Tymphes, 'upon Pain of Military Execution.

Dreſden, Nov. 16. 'His Poliſh Majeſty 'will depart from hence the 28th for Po- 'land, whither many Grandees are alrea- 'dy gone; but 'tis believ'd his Majeſty 'will return hither in ſome Months, to 'Celebrate the Carnival, for which ex- 'traordinary Preparations are made; 'they labour Night and Day in making 'Habits and Machines deſign'd for the 'Opera's and Comedies; and 'tis ſaid, 'the Divertiſements of the next Carni- 'val will be ſo magnificent and ſo ſump- 'tuous, that the like has never been ſeen 'in any Court. In the mean time, the 'Chamber of Finances is employ'd in 'finding out new Funds, and laying 'new Impoſitions, which makes it be- 'liev'd, that the Court has Need of great 'Sums of Money.

Hamburgh, Nov. 23. According to the 'Letters from Vienna, the Electoral 'Prince of Saxony is ill again of a Cold; 'and there are ſome who aſſure, that 'as ſoon as he is well enough in Health 'to Travel, he will depart for Poland, 'without appearing any more at Court. 'His Serene Highneſs Prince Eugene is 'alſo ſuddenly to depart, and he will go 'directly to the Netherlands, where great 'Preparations are making at Bruſſels for 'his Reception, and he is to reſide there 'for ſome time. Very little Talk is now 'heard of the Peace with the Turks, and 'the Aga who is at Belgrade, pretending 'daily that he expects new Inſtructions 'from the Porte, 'tis conjectur'd that no- 'thing will be done in it this Year. 'The Chaplain of the Daniſh Ambaſſy, 'has, by Sermons in the Houſe of the 'Daniſh Miniſter, celebrated for three 'Days together, namely, Sunday, Mon- 'day, and Tueſday, the Lutheran Jubilee; 'at which, all that are of that Commu- 'nion were preſent. 'Tis ſaid the ſame 'has been ſolemniz'd in Hungary, and 'other Hereditary Countries of the Em- 'perour, where there are Congregati- 'ons of the Confeſſion of Augsburg. In 'Oppoſition to which, the Roman Ca- 'tholicks have celebrated in many Pro- 'teſtant Places, and among others, 'at Dantzick, a Day of Thankſgiving 'for the Electoral Prince of Saxony's ha- 'ving embrac'd the Romiſh Religion. Ba- 'ron de Schlewitz, the Czar's Miniſter, 'is departed from Francfort to go ſpee- 'dily to the Court of France. Count 'Rantzau is arreſted again, and kept in 'the Corps de Garde at Berlin, for want 'of paying the Fine which his Pruſſian 'Majeſty impos'd on him; and 'tis ſaid 'he will be brought back to the Priſon 'of Peutſch, if he does not ſpeedily pro- 'vide for the ſaid Payment. We hear 'from Mecklemburg, that the Renewal 'of the Treaty between his Pruſſian Ma- 'jeſty and the Duke Regent, will ſoon be 'brought to a Concluſion; and 'tis ſaid 'that the Conditions of it will be the 'ſame, as was made ſome Years ago, be- 'tween the late King of Pruſſia, and the 'deceas'd Brother of the preſent Duke of 'Mecklemburg, at the time of his Suc- 'ceſſion to that Dutchy; except that his 'Majeſty will not furniſh any Troops to 'the Duke of Mecklemburg, which was 'one of the principal Articles of that 'Treaty. His Pruſſian Majeſty deſiring 'on the contrary, that the preſent 'Duke ſhould accommodate Matters with 'his Nobility. They write from Wiſmar, 'that the 24 Pruſſian Ships that have 'taken on board the Cannon, Ammuni- 'tion, and other things that have accru'd 'in Partition to his Pruſſian Majeſty, have 'ſet Sail with a fair South Weſt Wind, 'under the Convoy of a Daniſh Frigate, 'and 'tis believ'd they are already arriv'd 'at Stettin, where they will be put into 'the Arſenal. The ſame Letters ſay, 'that the Hanoverians have diſmounted 'their Cannon, &c. but 'twas doubted 'whether they would be able to remove 'them this Winter, by reaſon that the 'Roads are become very deep and bro- 'ken.

A certain Cure for Founder'd Horses, by an excellent Chymical Secret, which immediately takes away all Pains and Anguish in their Feet, and all burning Heat and parching Dryness, suppling and cooling them to Admiration, and causing them to become kindly Moist and Easy, and the Hoof to grow naturally wide, so as not to pinch them; making those Horses, that before could scarce stand, or when they did, stood with all their four Feet crumpling up together, able to stand and tread out freely and boldly without the least Pain. Uneasiness or Lameness: Those that are but a little Hot in their Feet, it presently sets up and recovers; and those exceeding bad, it effectually Cures in a short Time to a Miracle, making them as perfectly firm and sound in their Feet as ever, as the Author has for many Years past experienced, as well upon several Horses of his own, as upon Hundreds of others. To be had only at Mr. Bell's a Bookseller at the Cross Keys and Bible in Cornhill near Stocks Market, at 3 s. 6 d. a Glass with Directions.

The Gout infallibly cured so as never to return again, by a pleasant Specifick Secret to be taken in Drops only with a Glass of Wine, which without the least Trouble of Disorder, perfectly takes off, and absolutely cures the most severe Fit upon the spot, and certainly prevents its return, and that without any Disturbance to Nature, or the least Danger of recalling the Morbifick Matter from the extream Parts to the Head, Stomach, Lungs or Bowels, but on the contrary effectually cures those noble Parts from being attack'd by the Gout, and at the same time sweetens the Blood and Juices, and alters the very Mechanism of them so, as to prevent the poignant Salts first generated there, and then thrown upon the Joints, so as to cause the direful Torture, from being even so much as form'd in the Fluids for the future; and by that means, together with comforting the Stomach and Bowels, rectifying all the Digestions, fortifying the Head, Brain and Nerves, subduing all Sharpness of the Juices, and giving immediate Ease, it infallibly cures the Gout, and assuredly prevents its ever returning again, more effectually than the Peruvian Barks does Agues, as all who take it will most certainly find. Is to be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon-Square in the Minories, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.
